

Jane Coleman School of Dancing Summer Term 2013

Welcome back after the Easter holidays, I hope you are all well and egged out! There is a predictability about Easter that there is always going to be chocolate, in quantities that we really have no control over, how lovely is that!

Truffle and Mozart enjoyed themselves, an Easter Egg hunt on the Spa Valley Railway travelling by steam, another egg hunt at Bedgebury Pinetum which involved finding out facts and things, and as they were not too worried about making an Easter Card they helped with the crossword. Lunch was also to be had two days running and ICECREAM! Well, I have never bought them ICECREAM, they have waistlines to preserve, but the icecream-man at Bedgebury was very keen that all dogs should have a cornet! and very much enjoyed by all.

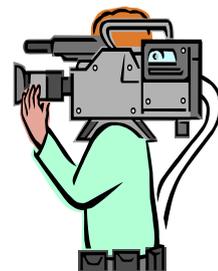

News

Hannah Greig and Kathryn Palfrey have both won places to study for The Diploma in Professional Musical Theatre and Dance at Urdang Academy.

Kathryn leaves Arts Educational School, Tring Park after her A Levels in the summer, but will keep in contact as she will also be working towards her teaching qualifications with me.

Hannah as most of you know from Friday evenings has assisted in the ballet classes as she is also working towards her teaching exams. This term Hannah is taking Pre Associate 1 in Ballet and her Advanced 1 Ballet and yes, she is still smiling!

Grade 2 Ballet class in Hawkhurst had an amazing time when a television crew came to film us all in class with Ellie Sharp. Ellie is featured in a programme with Channel 5 about her family and way of life. Everyone danced really well and we all had a great time even though the camera was seemingly attached to your nose or foot, mine included!

The Website is up and running and thank you to everyone who gave permission for your children to be part of it. My next job is to update information. Do take a look:

The Choreographic Trophy

Once again this annual event is truly amazing and I felt so proud to be watching some wonderful creative work. It was a great relief not only to me, but also Miss Caroline, that we could sit and enjoy the choreography and did not have to adjudicate. It has been a real pleasure watching these young people grow in maturity and develop their own style and individuality. Our adjudicators what a hard task they had, Miss Rachel, John Andrews and Kathryn Palfrey were certainly not to be envied. Thank you all for a great morning.

Kathryn demonstrated beautifully some of the Advanced 2 Ballet as an interlude while the girls were changing and it was inspiring for the younger children present to see triple pirouettes turned and very fast neat batterie, in allegro enchainments.

The results:

Single Choreography: Emily Atkins

Duets: Dani Fenn & Amy Marsh

Group: Amber Parker-Read, Shannon Berry,
Jasmin Berry & Emily Atkins

Choreographic Trophy: Emily Atkins

Ballet, Modern & Tap exam dates for this term

Sunday 9th June & Sunday 23rd June

Please put these dates in your diary

Venue: Burwash Village Hall

Classes available on the Timetables are Ballet, Modern, Tap, Jazz, Musical Theatre, and Professional Teacher Training.

Please remember that the children are collected from their classes inside the halls and must wait with either myself, Miss Caroline, Miss Rachel or Miss Terri. Please remember your water bottles, hair tidy and off your face, dance uniforms and lots of smiley faces!
